

Form 5 – Term 1

❖ These topics have been covered in Form 4 and are for Revision purposes here in Term One.

Topics	Objectives
Comprehension Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Decipher information given in various types of passages *Select and interpret key words /context clues in comprehension questions *Distinguish between denotative and connotative meaning *Use both explicit and implicit information to respond to comprehension questions <table border="1" style="width: 100%; margin-top: 10px;"> <tr> <td style="width: 30%;">Multiple Choice Practice</td> <td> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Synonyms *Antonyms *Equivalent sentences *Sentence completion *Error Recognition </td> </tr> </table>	Multiple Choice Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Synonyms *Antonyms *Equivalent sentences *Sentence completion *Error Recognition
Multiple Choice Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Synonyms *Antonyms *Equivalent sentences *Sentence completion *Error Recognition
Vocabulary & Grammar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Antonyms & Synonyms *Cliché *Redundancy *Homophones, homonyms Grammar *Transitional words and phrases *Subject-verb agreement *Review Tenses *Dangling Modifier *Punctuation *Direct and Indirect Speech *Active/Passive voice *Punctuation *Embedded Question *Comma Splice
Argumentative Writing, Persuasive Writing, Speech Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Planning & structure of an Argument *Major Techniques used in Argumentative writing e.g. facts and opinions, credible sources, etc.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Weaknesses in Arguments e.g. fallacies, generalizations, etc. *Understanding the Types of Appeals *Persuasive Techniques *Determine the purpose of Advertisements *Writing emotive/persuasive speeches
Narrative Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Emphasis on elements of prose- setting, plot, character, etc. *Students to create more believable plots and authentic characters *Use of imagery and literary devices within creative pieces of writing
Letter Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Review Types of Letters (apology, complaint, request, job application, editor, etc.) *Review structure of formal and informal letters

Form 5 – Term 2

❖ These English A topics have been covered in Form 4 and are for Revision purposes here in Term Two.

Topics	Objectives
Comprehension Skills/ Multiple Choice Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Use both explicit and implicit information to respond to comprehension questions *Identify Main idea *Topic Sentences *Fact and Opinion *Error Recognition *Recognizing bias *Equivalent Sentences
Summary Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Summarize different types of writing *Use of link/transition words effectively *Main Features of summary writing *Summary Writing Techniques *Function/role of Summary writing
Vocabulary & Grammar	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Idioms *Proverbs *Homophones *Transitional words and phrases *Subject-verb agreement *Review Tenses *Dangling Modifier *Punctuation *Review Parts-of-Speech *Direct and Indirect Speech
Report Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Extract factual information *Differentiate between fact and opinion *Sequencing of events *Structure/format of a Report